++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine then rain for some, best in the east.

Today:
A fine and dry start with some bright or sunny spells for many. Becoming a little cloudier through the course of the morning with a chance of an isolated shower. Light rain will approach from the west later. Light winds. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Persistent light rain and drizzle continuing through the evening and overnight in western parts, though it should remain a little drier in the east, especially toward the coast. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Monday:
A similar start to how Sunday ended with rain lingering in western parts, and drier but cloudy conditions in the east. Turning drier later as rain moves north. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A damp day on Tuesday as rain steadily clears eastward. High pressure then likely building, but with showers still possible Wednesday. Likely dry with sunny spells Thursday.
